

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

9th Influenza A (H1N1-2009) related death

A 27 year old Indian female with no known underlying medical conditions passed away this morning. She went to Changi General Hospital's Emergency Department (ED) on 23 July with a 4 day history of fever, cough and lethargy. She was admitted to ICU from the ED and intubated. Her condition deteriorated and she passed away this morning. The cause of death has been certified as acute myocardial infarction, with Influenza A (H1N1-2009) infection and pneumonia as contributing factors.

MINISTRY OF HEALTH

9 August 2009
